

Safeguarding Statement

Peace Collective is committed to creating spaces that are safe, respectful and supportive for everyone we work with.

We take safeguarding seriously — especially when working with young people, survivors of trauma, or those who may be at risk. Our team is trained in safeguarding and trauma-informed practice. We have clear procedures in place for recognising, responding to, and reporting concerns.

If you're working with us and ever feel unsafe, uncomfortable, or unsure about something — we encourage you to speak to a member of the team. You can also contact our designated safeguarding lead at: safeguarding@peace-collective.org

You can request a copy of our full safeguarding policy at any time.
